

2020 Woman of Promise Nomination

Introduction

Thank you for nominating a Woman of Promise candidate! Whether you're nominating yourself or a woman you know, we look forward to learning more about an accomplished graduate of the Center.

ELIGIBILITY

To be considered for this recognition, a woman must:

- Be a graduate of any of the Center's Programs (1980 - present)
- Have used the information and tools gained at the Center to transform her life in positive ways
- Demonstrate excellence in her work-life or volunteerism
- Show persistence, diligence, and a positive attitude
- Be committed to the advancement of her skills and knowledge

NOMINATION PROCEDURES: To complete your nomination, you will need to provide your contact information as well as contact information for your nominee (if not yourself). Upon review of nominations, the Center's staff will reach out to eligible candidates to gather further information about how they have pursued the plans set forth during their NDCC programs and why they believe they are Women of Promise. Nominee interviews will occur in February. Selection of the final honoree will be made by the end of that month.

WOMEN OF PROMISE EVENT: The recipient of the Woman of Promise recognition must be available to attend NDCC's signature event on the evening of April 16, 2020 at St. Charles Preparatory School . At this event, the Woman of Promise will have a chance to share her story of transformation and inspire others to choose a new direction and change their lives!

BENEFITS TO THE RECIPIENT: In preparation for the event, the Woman of Promise recipient will have the opportunity to receive expert help in developing her speech. The recipient and a selection of her guests will attend NDCC's 2020 Women of Promise event at no cost - a celebratory evening filled with food, drinks, and auctions supporting the exceptional services available at New Directions Career Center!

Not only featured at the event, the Woman of Promise will be recognized on the walls of the Center - an inspiration to other women as they begin their own transformations. She will also receive complimentary admission to all NDCC events in the future and opportunities for ongoing networking, leadership and motivation within the Central Ohio community.
